

Storytellers of Canada – Conteurs du Canada
April 25 2019

Job posting:

Indigenous Outreach Coordinator

SC-CC is seeking an Indigenous Outreach Coordinator to liaise between the board, our Indigenous Advisory Council, members and non-members to help promote oral storytelling and respect for the oral tradition of Indigenous storytellers and story keepers.

The position involves online correspondence across Canada and proficiency in the use of and management of social media platforms. The ideal candidate is an Indigenous artist or arts supporter with storytelling experience and able to work remotely with a reliable internet connection. Fluency in French is an asset but not mandatory. The position reports to the president or designated board director.

This is a new staff position for an independent contractor as an 8-month contract from starting immediately to Dec 31 2019 paid as four hours a month working independently @$25/hr (plus HST if applicable) with potential of increased hours and renewed contract into 2020.

Send any questions and a letter to apply to Dinny Biggs president@storytellers-conteurs.ca describing your interests, background and skills that you suggest as a good fit for this position.

This posting closes on May 10 2019.
